Pursuant to subsection (a)(2) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Title 5, United States Code, Section 552, and in accordance with a memorandum issued by the President and the Attorney General, all federal agencies must take affirmative steps to make agency policies public without waiting for a specific request. The FOIA requires the FBI to proactively disclose records for public inspection and copying, and where practicable, make them available online. This initiative will outline the project steps to evaluate FBI policy and administrative documents of potential public interest value for subsequent public disclosure.

As of 5/31, RMD has established the internal review process, identified the 12 possible policies for review, and completed ten reviews (or 83% of the goal) for FY16.

None at this time.
